

EM210: HOSPITAL EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

This course describes the elements of a comprehensive hospital emergency management program, explains why it is important, and discusses effective program development and implementation.

SLIDE 1

Introduction

SLIDE 2

Comprehensive Emergency Management Program

SLIDE 3

Phases of Emergency Management

SLIDE 4

All Hazards Perspective

SLIDE 5

Community-Wide Collaboration

SLIDE 6
Integration Process with Community Planning

SLIDE 7
Interoperability – Key to Effective Response

SLIDE 8
National Incident Management System (NIMS)

SLIDE 9
Hospital Incident Management System (HICS)

SLIDE 10
Collaboration with other Healthcare Organizations

SLIDE 11

Gaining Organizational Support

SLIDE 12

Gaining Organizational Support - EM Committee

SLIDE 13

Gaining Organizational Support - Focused Committee

SLIDE 14

Gaining Organizational Support - Committee Members

SLIDE 15

Gaining Organizational Support - Providing a Budget

SLIDE 16
Emergency Management Program Development

SLIDE 17
Program Development - Hazard Assessment

SLIDE 18
Program Development - Resource Evaluation

SLIDE 19
Program Development - EMP Development

SLIDE 20
Program Development - Mitigation and Preparedness

SLIDE 21
Implementation

SLIDE 22
Implementation - Plan and Timeline

SLIDE 23
Implementation - Strategies

SLIDE 24
Testing and Evaluation

SLIDE 25
Testing and Evaluation - Exercise Programs

SLIDE 26
Testing and Evaluation - Program Sustainment

SLIDE 28
Conclusion