

EV160: EVACUATION LOGISTICS

This course discusses the primary logistical considerations associated with the process of hospital and patient evacuation. Training addresses the resource-related issues needed to maintain continuity of care, including staffing, supplies, and equipment. It concludes by describing the process for preserving the integrity of the physical plant and considerations for post-evacuation recovery of the hospital.

SLIDE 1

Introduction

SLIDE 2

Off-Duty Staff Mobilization and Assignment

SLIDE 3

Personnel Re-Assigned to a Receiving Facility

SLIDE 4

Maintaining Continuity of Care during Evacuation

SLIDE 5

Pharmacy – Non-Controlled Substances

SLIDE 6

Pharmacy – Controlled Substances

SLIDE 7

Materials Management Staff

SLIDE 8

Receiving Facility Guidelines

SLIDE 9

Terms Between Transferring & Receiving Facilities

SLIDE 10

Terms Between Transferring & Receiving Facilities (cont.)

SLIDE 11

Alternate/Relocation Sites for Incident Facilities

SLIDE 12

Facility Shutdown Procedures

SLIDE 13

Shut Down and Secure the Utilities

SLIDE 14

Procedure for Facility Shutdown

SLIDE 15

“Stay Team”

SLIDE 16

Recovery Considerations

SLIDE 17

Conclusions