

HD210: PERSONAL PROTECTIVE EQUIPMENT (PPE)

This course provides a good working knowledge about personal protective equipment (PPE) including when it's needed and what components make up a typical PPE ensemble. It also discusses the various levels of protection and when it is appropriate to upgrade or downgrade the level of protection. In addition, the maintenance and care of this equipment will be discussed.

SLIDE 1

Course Objectives

SLIDE 2

Overview

SLIDE 3

Role of Personal Protective Equipment (PPE)

SLIDE 4

Employer Options

SLIDE 5

Hospital PPE Ensemble

SLIDE 6
Components of PPE

SLIDE 7
Chemical Protective Clothing

SLIDE 8
Respirators

SLIDE 9
Atmosphere-Supplying Respirator

SLIDE 10
Air-Purifying Respirator (APR)

SLIDE 11
Two Types of APRs

SLIDE 12
Levels of Protection Available

SLIDE 13
Level A

SLIDE 14
Level B

SLIDE 15
Level C

SLIDE 16
Level D

SLIDE 17
Hospital Hazard Vulnerability Analysis (HVA)

SLIDE 18
Level of Protection Downgraded

SLIDE 19
Physical Stresses of Wearing PPE

SLIDE 20
Maintenance

SLIDE 21
Conclusion